IV. Think about scholarships offered in the community:

___ Brainstorm philanthropic, non-profit organizations, corporations/businesses and religious institutions that may offer awards. Talk with your parents about their employers, professional associations and union memberships (See 100 Scholarship Tips Sheet for more ideas).

V. Review your academic interests, club memberships and extracurricular activities for funding sources:

___ There are scholarships available for students involved in community service organizations like Key Club and Rotary. Members of Homebuilding may also apply for a special homebuilding scholarship.

VI. Check out College Specific Scholarships:

___ Go directly to the college's financial aid and/or scholarship page

VII. Make sure you complete the FAFSA. Many scholarships require the FAFSA to approve funding:

___ Start your FAFSA at <https://fafsa.ed.gov/>
See FAFSA Cheat Sheet for things you will need to complete the FAFSA.

VIII. Keep in communication with your counselor!

___ Check out the Huron Guidance Website for additional scholarships

___ Come visit your counselor

___ Sign up for Remind

___ Make sure that your counselor has an up to date email address for you

___ Make sure your email is correct in Career Cruising. Don't miss out on Scholarships Opportunities!
