

University of Michigan Addiction Treatment Services (UMATS)

Our comprehensive range of services for adolescents ages 12-24 includes:

- Psychiatric Evaluations, Substance Abuse Evaluations, Consultations, Treatment planning, and Referrals
- Advocacy based interventions in response to life stressors (including problems with legal and school system)
- Individual, group, and family therapy for mental health and substance abuse
- Intensive outpatient programs for adolescents (mid-afternoon) with a family group component
- Discovery Group for adolescents (education and prevention)
- Psychiatric evaluations and treatment
- Care coordination with primary care physicians and providers
- Specialization in Dual Diagnosis (substance use and mental health)
- Education and psychoeducation for patients, families, providers and community members
- Youth and Family Support Services
- Addiction specialization and sensitivity in medicine
- Respectful to all patient preferred identities

Covered by most private insurances

Questions about the program: Contact Lori Shulman, LMSW, Charles Graham, PhD or Sarah Rollins, LMSW to schedule an evaluation at 734-764-0231 or toll free 1-800-525-5188